*DISTRICTS

- CGCI is organized into 28 geographic districts
- Each has its own district director, officers, committees, bylaws, meetings and dues.
  - District directors attend state board meetings and are the liaison between CGCI and local organizations
- Districts may set dues that are separate from CGCI membership dues
  - District dues may be per capita or per club/plant society
  - These dues help defray the expenses of the district
- Clubs are required to belong to a district
- Plant Societies and affiliates have the option of belonging to a district

LIABILITY INSURANCE

- The CGCI liability insurance plan is available to clubs and plant societies.
- Coverage is for investigation, legal defense, bodily injury and property damage due to the negligence of the club or any of its members during any meeting or event (flower show, garden tour) controlled by the club,
- Coverage is limited to $1,000,000 per accident, with an aggregate of $2,000,000 for all groups.
- A new club or plant society may be added to the policy at the time they join CGCI. A full year's premium will be charged. Subsequent premiums are due on January 15 for the insurance year, which begins on February 15.
