REMINDER FROM THE RBG:

Free, free, free, free FUN for the Family.....

If you are in town this weekend, we hope you will stop by Walnut Creek Civic Park and create a clay tile for the Garden's new tile mosaic 'Welcome Wall'. The wall designers and a team of artists will be there to show us all how!

CERAMIC WORKSHOP

You are invited to a FREE community build workshop! Community members of all ages will partner with artists to create a beautiful handmade clay tile that represents a drought-tolerant plant found in the garden's collection. Your tile will be part of a permanent mosaic mural at The Ruth Bancroft Garden. Bring friends and family to the Civic Arts Education ceramics studio in Civic Park for a day – or a whole weekend-- of indoor/outdoor art making. No experience needed!

When: Saturday August 20th & Sunday 21st, 2016

Location: Civic Arts Education

1365 Civic Drive,
Studio E (Clay Arts Studio)
